

Promoting fire safety

Written by Kimberly Donnelly
Monday, 19 March 2012 00:00

Weston Fire Chief and Marshal John Pokorny, standing far right in the back row, joined other area fire officials, including Norwalk Fire Chief Denis McCarthy at the podium, to talk about the importance of educating the public about fire safety.

The press conference took place just before the change last weekend to daylight-saving time.

Changing the clocks has become a traditional time to check and change smoke and carbon monoxide detector batteries.

—Bruce Ando photo